Ordination and Installation of Rev. Herbert Duncan Rollason—Memorial Services—Fourth of July Celebration Arranged.

The council called by the Congregational church for the ordination and installation services of Herbert Duncan Rollason, met at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the church. Rev. Charles H. Peck of Mansfield, Mass., was appointed moderator and Rev. George H. Ewing of Norwich, scribe. A paper was read by Mr. Rollason, and the council examined him. After a brief private session, the result was announced as unanimously satisfactory and many favorable comments were passed on the candidate. The council then adjourned.

A story hour was enjoyed by the ministers and delegates, during the intermission. At half past five supper was served in the vestry by the ladies of the church to the ministers, delegates and friends.

The menu was as follows:

Roast Lamb	Pickles
Escalloped Potatoes	Rolls
Ice Cream	Fancy Cakes
Coffee

At half past seven the church was filled with delegates and members of the congregation for the ordination and installation services. The programme was as follows:
