

GOFF.—Ernest Abner Goff, born March 24, 1872; died in Seaburst, Wash., Dec. 6, 1957. In 1903 he was united in marriage with Maude Forsyth. He was baptized in 1912. Some time after the death of his first wife he married Edna Seely. They bore the cost of building a church and donated it to the organization. Mourning their loss are his wife, a daughter, four sons, and seven grandchildren.

Vol. 135, No. 13

110th Year of Continuous Publication

March 27, 1958

p 26

<http://documents.adventistarchives.org/Periodicals/RH/RH19580327-V135-13.pdf> accessed 4/8/2015

Goff—Ernest Abner Goff was born March 24, 1872, and passed away Dec. 6, 1957, at his home in Seeburst near Seattle, Wash. On Sept. 3, 1903, Brother Goff was united in marriage to Maude Forsyth in Merritt, Wash. Children of this union surviving are: Maude McGuire of San Francisco, Ernest A., Jr. of Glenn Ellen, Calif., John Harry of Sonoma, Calif., Ezra B. and Claude Goff of Kenwood, Calif.; also 7 grandchildren. Some time after the death of his first wife, Brother Goff was united in marriage with Edna Seely who survives. Brother Goff was baptized by Elder M. C. Guild in 1912, and was a member of the Sandpoint church at the time of his passing. Through the years Brother Goff has been an active and ardent member of the SDA church.

Note a later published correction clarified that his first wife was still living at the time of his death.

p 6

<http://documents.adventistarchives.org/Periodicals/NPG/NPG19580127-V53-04.pdf>

Accessed 4/8/2015