

Paid Notices

The family of Dick and Sherry would like to express their profound gratitude for the CAREgivers of Home Instead Senior Care, the VNA, and especially Aunt Trudy, for making it possible for them to spend their remaining time in the comfort of home.

Visit burlingtonfreepress.com/obituaries to express condolences and sign the guest book.

HERBERT DUNCAN ROLLASON III

LEICESTER — Herbert Duncan Rollason III, 59, of Leicester, died unexpectedly on Friday, May 21, 2010, at his home on Lake Dunmore.

He was born on Nov. 3, 1950, in Amherst, Mass. and graduated from Amherst Regional High School in 1969. He attended the Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N.Y. and graduated in 1973 with a degree in Business Administration. After taking three months to pursue an interest in skiing and working in Aspen, Colo., he worked for Georgia-Pacific and Johnson Building Supply, until he started his own wholesale building materials business in 1983. Ten years later he "retired", something that a born salesman could only do for so long. He soon opened and operated a carpet store, a used car dealership, and several real estate ventures, some of which he continued to operate until his passing. In addition to his career interests, Duncan had a love for travel, classic cars, music, motorcycles, boats and airplanes, and of course Middlebury athletic events. In his youth, he played the drums in a band and dreamed of owning a Shelby, flying his own airplane and owning a restaurant, all of which he accomplished before the age of 50. He spent countless hours at the Howard E. Brush Arena in Middlebury, as well as numerous other ice rinks across New England, cheering for his son, the pride and joy of his life.

As a child, Duncan spent his summers at the family cottage on Lake Dunmore, later purchasing and renovating the cottage next door, where he made his home for more than 30 years. He was an avid water skier during the summer and an alpine skier during the winter. In addition, he enjoyed hunting, cooking, and telling a good (or sometimes bad) joke. Days before his death, friends had helped him plant an asparagus bed for his future enjoyment. He was also working on plans for an upcoming family reunion at Lake Dunmore.

Duncan is survived by his son, H. Duncan Rollason IV of Washington, D.C. and Salisbury. He is also survived by his father, Herbert Duncan Rollason Jr., of Amherst, Mass.; his sister, Betsy Rollason of Burlington; and his former wife, Holly Killary, of Salisbury. He was predeceased by his mother, Grace S. Rollason.

A memorial service and celebration of his life will be held in the first week of August, with details to be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Vermont Chapter of the Make a Wish Foundation, the American Diabetes Association, or Alcoholics Anonymous.

Visit burlingtonfreepress.com/obituaries to express condolences and sign the guest book.

condolences.

CORRECTION