

FRED FRANK TEMPLETON

GREENVILLE, Oct. 10 — Fred Frank Templeton, 76, died suddenly at his home in Greenville Thursday evening. He was born in Willimantic, Feb. 15, 1776, the son of Frank and Emily (Sears) Templeton.

Mr. Templeton had lived in Greenville for the past 50 years. He was a guide and boat builder by trade. He was a member of Columbia lodge 200, F and AM, Greenville, having been a member since 1908.

He is survived by his wife, Evangeline; one daughter, Mrs. John J. Rollason of Middletown, Conn.; five sons, Samuel J., Manchester, Conn.; Orman E. East Hartford, Conn.; Frank and Hubert of Greenville Junction, and Percy of South Windsor, Conn.; and several grandchildren.

Masonic funeral services will be held at the Union church Sunday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. John Morrison officiating. Burial will be in Greenville cemetery.

Templeton Fred Frabk Obit 1952

Clipped By:
rinhoff
Sep 1, 2025